"IF IT'S FURS WE HAVE THEM"

The expression of everyone: "What beautiful furs for the money!"

We have an assortment that would do justice to a large city store. We have sold to parties who have looked in New York and Albany and have returned to purchase of us. There's a reason: We sold them much less than the same things could be purchased there for.

See the London Dyed Natural Pony Coat, 52 ins. long, heavy fancy brocaded lining, for $49.00. Others at $55.00, $68.00, $89.00, $85.00, $110.00, with elegant deep Jap fox collar, actually worth $125.00. Brown Coney Coats $42.00, 52 ins. long.

NELSON'S LOGBOOK SOLD

Bought by an Englishman to Prevent It from Coming Here
London, Nov. 9.—The logbook of Lord Nelson's flagship Victory, containing a vivid description of the battle of Trafalgar, will not be sold at auction, as had been announced. It has been purchased by T. J. Barratt, a well known collector of Nelson relics. Mr. Barratt states that he had bought the logbook to prevent it from going to America.
Since the announcement that it was to go under the hammer, the auctioneers have received several cablegrams from wealthy American purchasers offering to buy it. The price paid by Mr. Barratt was several thousand pounds.
